MADERA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT STATE OF CALIFORNIA

DEFAULT JUDGMENT FOR DIVORCE, LEGAL SEPERATION OR NULLITY- PACKET

The attached forms can be used if your spouse/partner DID NOT file a Response and you DO NOT have an agreement. Make sure you have already filed Form FL-115 Proof of Service of Summons AND Form FL-141 Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration of Disclosure (or file it now).

This situation is called a "true default" because more than 30 days have passed since the petitioner (the spouse/partner that started the case) served the petition and summons, and the Respondent (the other spouse/partner) did NOT file a response and there is no written agreement. Please note if your spouse or partner is currently in the military, special rules may apply under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act.

This packet includes the following forms: FL-165 Request to Enter Default, FL-170 Declaration for Default or Uncontested Dissolution or Legal Separation, FL-180 Judgment, FL-190 Notice of Entry of Judgment. If you are asking for custody orders, you may have to fill out additional forms that may apply to your case. Included in this packet is form FL-341 Child Custody and Visitation (Parenting Time) Order Attachment. If you are unsure if you need additional forms you can ask the court's family law facilitator/self-help center (located on the 1st Floor or call 559.416.5520).

1. Fill out your forms

Fill out all the forms listed above. If you need any additional forms, you can go to www.courts.ca.gov or ask the court's family law facilitator/self-help center. Your Judgment must match your original petition you previously filed.

2. Have your forms reviewed

Ask the court's family law facilitator/self-help center (located on the 1st Floor) to review your paperwork. Please take them a copy of your original petition previously filed for them to also review. You can also hire your own lawyer to review your papers or to get legal advice.

3. You will need copies

You will need at least two (2) copies. One copy will be for you; another copy will be for your spouse. The original is for the court. You will also need to provide the clerk with three (3) envelopes with postage; one (1) addressed to yourself and two (2) addressed to the Respondent.

4. File your forms with the court clerk

Take your forms to the Civil Division (located on the 4th Floor). The clerk will process your paperwork and give it to a judge to review. If all your documents are completed correctly, the judge will sign the Judgment without either named spouse having to appear in court. If there is a problem with the documents, a court appearance may be necessary. Or you may just need to fix a mistake.

5. You receive your final judgment

A court clerk will mail FL-190 Notice of Entry of Judgment to each spouse or domestic partner, with the date that the judgment was signed. They will call the petitioner to pick up the copies of the actual Judgment FL-180. Keep a copy of these forms in a safe place. You may need them in the future.
