

MADERA COUNTY SUPERIOR COURT STATE OF CALIFORNIA

REQUEST FOR ORDER PACKET

The purpose of this packet is to ask the Court for a hearing date to make or change orders about child custody, visitation, child support, spousal support or other issues requiring a court date. Please note you MUST already have an open family law case to file this request.

Inside this packet you will find the following forms: FL-300-INFO Information Sheet for Request for Order that will teach you how to fill out the actual forms and FL-314-INFO Child Custody Information Sheet. Once you have read the information sheets, carefully begin to fill out the actual forms to the best of your ability. Make sure you answer every question that applies to your case (situation) only. If you have an existing case, locate your old documents for your case and follow the information as to who is listed on those forms ex: if you are listed as the Respondent then you will remain as the Respondent. The Petitioner and Respondent never change; the Petitioner is the person who started the case in the beginning and will remain as the petitioner.

1. Fill out your forms

Fill out the FL-300 Request for Order and if applicable FL-311 Child Custody and Visitation Application Attachment. If you need additional applicable attachment forms you can go to courts.ca.gov/forms or visit the family law facilitator/self-help center (located on the 1st Floor).

2. File your forms with the court clerk

We are pleased to offer eFiling, a way to electronically file your court documents! You can eFile documents 24 hours a day, 7 days a week through an approved Electronic Filing Service Provider (EFSP). A list of approved EFSPs can be found on the court's website. The link is:

https://www.madera.courts.ca.gov/system/files/general/list-approved-efsp-alpha-final_0.pdf

Or you can take your completed documents to the Civil Division (located on the 4th Floor).

The clerk will keep the original and give you two file stamped copies of the papers. You may have to meet with the mediator before your court date, so check your paperwork. You will have to pay a filing fee. If you cannot afford the fee, you can ask for a fee waiver.

3. Serve your papers on the other parent

Have someone (NOT you), at least 18 years old, serve/give the other parent a copy of your papers and a blank Responsive Declaration to Request for Order form FL-320 before your court date. Look at the front of form FL-300 to see if the court ordered you to serve any other documents.

If Item 7 in the section called "Court Order" on your Request for Order (Form FL-300) is checked, your papers MUST be served in person at least 16 court days before your court date. If Item 7 is not checked, but other items in the "Court Order" section are checked, you may also need to have the other parent served in person. Ask the family law facilitator/self-help center to make sure you know if you must have your papers served in person.

If there are NO check marks in the "Court Order" section, you can probably serve the other parent (and the LCSA if involved) by mail. But if you serve by mail, you must do it at least 16 court days before the hearing date plus 5 calendar days for mailing. Ask the family law facilitator/self-help center if you are not sure if you can serve your papers by mail.

4. File your Proof of Service

Have your server fill out a proof of service (you can use Proof of Personal Service form FL-330) and give it to you so you can file it with the court. It is very important that your server fills out the Proof of Service correctly. If possible, have your family law facilitator/self-help center review it to make sure it was filled out properly. If you were allowed to, and did, serve the papers by mail, have your server fill out the Proof of Service by Mail (Form FL-335). You will need to file the Proof of Service with the clerk prior to your hearing date. The clerk will give you a file stamped copy for your records.

NOTE: You can also begin the process online, from home, or on one of the public computers located in the Self-Help Office on the 1st Floor at <https://www.butte.courts.ca.gov/self-help/online-resources> (see attached flyer)

4 Complete form FL-300 (Page 1)

Caption: Complete the top part with your name, address, and telephone number. Below that, fill in the court's address.

Write the name of the Petitioner, Respondent, or Other Parent/Party. (You must use the party names as they appear in the petition.)

In the next section, check “CHANGE” if you want to change an existing order. Check “TEMPORARY EMERGENCY (EX PARTE) ORDER” if you are asking that the court make emergency orders that will be effective until the hearing date.

Then, check the boxes that apply to the orders you are requesting. Finally, in the box on the right, write your case number.

Item 1: List the name(s) of the other person(s) in your case who will receive your request. In some cases, this might include a grandparent who is joined as a party in the case, a local child support agency, or a lawyer who represents a child in the case.

Item 2: Leave this blank. The court clerk will fill in the date, time, and location of the hearing.

Item 3: This is a notice to all other parties.

Items 4–5: Leave these blank. The court will complete them if the orders are granted.

Item 6: In some counties, the court clerk will check item 6 and provide the details for your required child custody mediation or recommending counseling appointment. Other courts require the party or the party’s lawyer to make the appointment and then complete item 6 before filing form FL-300.

Ask your court’s Family Law Facilitator or Self-Help Center to find out what your court requires.

Items 7–8: Leave these blank. The court will complete them, if needed.

5 Complete form FL-300 (pages 2–4)

6 Complete additional forms and make copies

Complete any additional forms that you need to file with the Request for Order. Make at least two copies of your full packet.

Note: You may file one form FL-150 to respond to items 3, 4, and 6.

7 File your documents

Give your paperwork and the copies you made to the court clerk to process. You may take them to the clerk’s office in person, mail them, or, in some counties, you can e-file them.

The clerk will keep the original and give you back the copies you made with a court date and time stamped on the first page of the Request for Order. The procedure may be different in some courts if you are requesting temporary emergency orders.

8 Pay filing fees

A fee is due at the time of filing. If you cannot afford to pay the filing fee, and you do not already have a valid fee waiver order in this case, you can ask the court to waive the fee by completing and filing form FW-001, Request to Waive Court Fees and form FW-003, Order on Court Fee Waiver.

9 Temporary Emergency (Ex Parte) Orders
(nondomestic violence restraining orders)

Courts can make temporary orders in your family law case to respond to emergencies that cannot wait to be heard on the court’s regular hearing calendar.

The emergency must involve an immediate danger or irreparable harm to a party or children in the case, or an immediate loss or damage to property.

To request these orders:

- Complete form FL-300. Describe the emergency and explain why you need the temporary emergency orders before the hearing.
- Complete form FL-305 to serve as your proposed temporary orders.
- Include a declaration describing how and when you notified the other parties (or why you could not give notice) about your request and the hearing (see form FL-303).
- Complete other forms if required by your local court rules.
- Follow your court’s local procedures for reserving the day for the hearing, submitting your paperwork, and paying filing fees.

12 Who can be a “server”

You cannot serve the papers. Have someone else (who is at least 18 years old) do it. The server can be a friend, a relative who is not involved in your case, a sheriff, or a professional process server.

13 “Personal Service”

Personal service means that your server walks up to each person to be served, makes sure the right person is served, and then hand-delivers a copy of all the papers (and the blank forms). If the person served does not take the papers, the server may leave the papers near the person.

Note: Sometimes the papers may be personally served on the other party’s lawyer (if the other party has one) in the family law case.

10 General information about “service”

“Service” is the act of giving your legal papers to all persons named as parties in the case so that they know what orders you are asking for and have information about the hearing.

If the other parties are NOT properly served, the judge cannot make the orders you requested on the date of the hearing.

11 Serve the Request for Order and blank forms

The other party must be “served” with a:

- Copy of the Request for Order and all the other forms and attachments filed with the court clerk.
- Copy of any temporary emergency orders granted.
- Blank form FL-320, Responsive Declaration to Request for Order.
- Blank form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration (if you served form FL-150 or FL-155).

14 “Service by mail”

Service by mail means that your server places copies of all the documents (and blank forms) in a sealed envelope and mails them to the address of each party being served (or to the party’s lawyer, if the party has one).

The server must be 18 years of age or over and live or work in the county where the mailing took place.

Important! For questions about personal service or service by mail, talk with a lawyer or check with your court’s Family Law Facilitator or Self-Help Center at www.courts.ca.gov/1083.htm.

15 When to use personal service or service by mail

Personal Service

Personal service is the best way to make sure the other adults in your case are correctly served. Sometimes you must use personal service.

You must use personal service when the court:

- Ordered personal service;
- Granted temporary emergency orders;
- Does not yet have the power to make orders that apply to the other party because the person has either NOT previously:
 - Been served with a Summons and Petition;^{*}

OR

 - Appeared in the case by filing a:
 - a. Response to a Petition;
 - b. Appearance, Stipulations, and Waivers;
 - c. Written notice of appearance;
 - d. Request to strike all or part of the Petition; or
 - e. Request to transfer the case.

^{*}Note: A Request for Order may be served at the same time as the family law Summons and Petition.

1. After serving, the server must fill out a Proof of Personal Service (form FL-330) and give it to you. If the server needs instructions, give them form FL-330-INFO, Information Sheet for Proof of Personal Service.
2. Take the completed Proof of Personal Service form to the clerk’s office (or e-file it, if available in your court) at least 5 court days before your hearing.

Deadline: The deadline for personal service is 16 court days before the hearing date, unless the court orders a different deadline.

Service by Mail

If you are not required to use personal service, you may use service by mail.

Important! Check with your court’s Family Law Facilitator’s Office or Self-Help Center, or ask a lawyer to be sure you are allowed to use service by mail in your case.

A Request for Order to change a judgment or final order on the issue of child custody, visitation (parenting time), or child support may be served by mail if:

- The documents do not include temporary emergency orders;
- The court did not order personal service; and
- You have verified the other party’s current residence or office address. (You may use Address Verification (form FL-334).)

To change a judgment or final order on any other issue, including spousal or domestic partner support, the Request for Order may need to be personally served on the other party.

1. After serving, the server must fill out a Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335) and give it to you. If the server needs instructions, give them Information Sheet for Proof of Service by Mail (form FL-335-INFO).
2. Take the completed Proof of Personal Service form to the clerk’s office (or e-file it, if available in your court) at least 5 court days before your hearing.

Deadline: Unless the court orders a different time, service by mail must be completed at least 16 court days PLUS 5 calendar days before the hearing date (if service is in California). Other time lines apply for service outside of California.

16 Get ready for your hearing

- Take at least two copies of your documents and filed forms to the hearing. Include a filed Proof of Service form.
- Find more information about preparing for your hearing at www.courts.ca.gov/1094.htm.

Parents who come to court about child custody and parenting time (visitation) face decisions about parenting plans for their children. This information sheet provides general information about child custody and parenting time matters, how to get help resolving a custody dispute or making a parenting plan, where to find an attorney, and where to find other resources.

What is a parenting plan?

A parenting plan describes how the parents will divide their responsibilities for taking care of their child.

The plan may include a general or specific schedule of days, times, weekends, holidays, vacations, transportation, pick-up/drop-off, limits on travel, counseling and treatment services, and other details.

What are legal and physical custody?

A parenting plan usually includes:

- Legal custody: how parents make major decisions about the child's health, education, and welfare;
- Physical custody: where the child lives; and
- Parenting time, time-share, or visitation: when the child spends time with each parent.

Legal custody and physical custody may each be specified as joint (both parents have certain responsibilities) or sole (one parent has the responsibility alone).

Can we make our own parenting plan?

Yes. You have a right to make a parenting plan agreement on your own. This agreement may be called a stipulation, time-share plan, or parenting plan.

If both parents can agree on a parenting plan, the judge will probably approve it. The agreement becomes a court order after it is signed by both parents and the judge, and filed with the court.

What if there is domestic violence or a protective order?

If there is domestic violence or a protective order, talk with an attorney, counselor, or mediator before making a parenting plan.

For domestic violence help, call the National Domestic Violence Hotline at 1-800-799-7233 (TDD:1-800-787-3224) or call 211 if available in your area.

What if we don't have a parenting plan?

If you can't reach an agreement, the court will refer you to mediation with family court services (FCS) to try to work out a parenting plan.

What is mediation with family court services?

Family court services (FCS) provides mediation to help parents resolve disagreements about the care of their child. The mediator will meet with you and the other parent to try to help you both make a parenting plan. An orientation may be provided that offers additional information about the process.

If you are concerned about meeting with the other parent in mediation, or there is a domestic violence issue or a protective order involving the other parent, you may ask to meet alone with the mediator without the other parent. You may also request to have a support person with you at mediation. The support person may not speak for you.

Do we have to agree to a parenting plan in mediation?

No. You do not have to come to an agreement in mediation. When the parents can't agree, the judge will decide. For legal advice, contact an attorney. For other information, ask the self-help center or family court services about how the process works in your court.

Are there other ways to resolve our dispute?

Yes. You may try other alternative dispute resolution (ADR) options, including:

1. Meet and Confer: Parents and their attorneys (if any) may meet at any time and as often as necessary to work out a parenting plan without a court hearing. If there is a protective order limiting the contact between the parents, then the “meet and confer” can be through attorneys or a mediator in separate sessions.

2. Settlement Conference: In some courts, parents may meet with a judge, neutral evaluators, or family law attorneys not involved in the case to discuss settlement. Check with the local court to find out if this is an option. If there is a protective order, the settlement discussion can be through attorneys or a mediator in separate sessions.

3. Private Mediation: Parents may hire a private mediator to help them resolve their dispute.

4. Collaborative Law Process: Each parent hires a lawyer and agrees to resolve the dispute without going to court. The parents may also hire other experts.

Court Hearing

When the parents cannot agree to a parenting plan on their own, in mediation, or in any other ADR process, the judge will decide.

If there is domestic violence or a protective order, a parent may be able to bring a support person with him or her to the court hearing, but the support person may not speak for that person.

Where can I get help?

This information sheet gives only basic information on the child custody process and is not legal advice. If you want legal advice, ask an attorney for assistance. For other information, you may want to:

1. Contact family court services.
2. Contact the family law facilitator or self-help center for information, local rules and court forms, and referrals to local legal services providers.
3. Find an attorney through your local bar association, the State Bar of California at <http://calbar.ca.gov>, or the Lawyer Referral Service at 1-866-442-2529.
4. Hire a private mediator for help with your parenting agreement. A mediator may be an attorney or counselor. Contact your local bar association, court ADR program, or family court services for a referral to local resources.
5. Find information on the Online Self-Help Center website at www.courts.ca.gov/selfhelp.
6. For free and low-cost legal help (if you qualify), go to: www.lawhelpcalifornia.org.
7. Find information at your local law library or ask at your public library.
8. Ask for a court hearing and let the judge decide what is best for your child.

Requests for Accommodations

Assistive listening systems, computer-assisted real-time captioning, or sign language interpreter services are available if you ask at least five days before the proceeding. Contact the clerk's office or go to www.courts.ca.gov/forms for Request for Accommodations by Persons with Disabilities and Response (form MC-410). (Civil Code, § 54.8.)

1 If you received a Request for Order (form FL-300):

- Carefully read the papers you received to make sure you understand what orders are being requested.
- Note the date, time, and location of the court hearing.
- Check to see if the court ordered a specific date for filing and serving your Responsive Declaration to Request for Order (form FL-320).
- If you need more time before the hearing to prepare a responsive declaration or talk with a lawyer, you may ask the court to continue the hearing date. For more information, consult with a lawyer or contact the the Family Law Facilitator or Self-Help Center in your court (see item 16).

2 USE Responsive Declaration to Request for Order (form FL-320)

Use form FL-320 to let the court and the other party know that you agree or disagree with each of the requests made in the Request for Order (form FL-300).

- If you disagree, use form FL-320 to describe the orders you would like the court to make.
- If you do not file and serve form FL-320, the court can still make orders without your input.

3 DO NOT USE Responsive Declaration to Request for Order (form FL-320) to:

- Ask for court orders that were not requested in the Request for Order (form FL-300). Instead, file and serve your own Request for Order (form FL-300) to ask for orders about other issues.
- Respond to Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (form DV-100). Instead, you must use Response to Request for Domestic Restraining Order (form DV-120).
- Respond to Request to Change or End Restraining Order (form DV-300 or form JV-255 when the juvenile case is closed and the order was granted under the Domestic Violence Prevention Act). Instead, you must use Response to Request to End or Change Restraining Order (form DV-320).

4 Forms checklist

- Form FL-320, Responsive Declaration to Request for Order, is the basic form you need. Depending on the requests made in the Request for Order (form FL-300), you may need other forms.
- For child custody or visitation (parenting time) orders, you may need to complete some of these forms:
 - FL-105, Declaration Under Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act
 - FL-311, Child Custody and Visitation (Parenting Time) Application Attachment
 - FL-312, Request for Child Abduction Prevention Orders
 - FL-341\(C\), Children’s Holiday Schedule Attachment
 - FL-341\(D\), Additional Provisions—Physical Custody Attachment
 - FL-341\(E\), Joint Legal Custody Attachment
- For child support, you need:
 - A current form FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration. You may use form FL-155, Financial Statement (Simplified), instead of form FL-150 if you meet the requirements listed on page 2 of form FL-155.

Notice:

 - The court will order child support based on the income of the parents.
 - Child support normally continues until the child is 18 years and has graduated from high school.
 - You must give the court information about your finances. If you do not, the child support order will be based on information about your income that the court receives from other sources.
- For spousal or domestic partner support or orders about your finances, you need these forms:
 - FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration
 - FL-157, Spousal or Partner Support Declaration Attachment (if the request is to change a support judgment)
- For attorney’s fees and costs, you need these forms (except in Domestic Violence Prevention Act cases):
 - FL-150, Income and Expense Declaration
 - FL-158, Supporting Declaration for Attorney’s Fees and Costs (or provide the information in a declaration)
 - FL-319, Request for Attorney’s Fees and Costs Attachment (or provide the information in a declaration)
- If you plan on having witnesses testify at the hearing, you need this form:
 - FL-321, Witness List

To respond to a Request for Order, you must:

5 Complete the top part (caption) of the form

Complete the top portion including your name, address, and telephone number, the court address, the names of all the parties in the case, and the case number. Also, print or type the same hearing date, time, and department that appears on the Request for Order (form FL-300).

6 Specify a response to orders requested

Items 1–8: Each item on the form matches the item numbers on the Request for Order (form FL-300). Complete item 1. Next, mark the same box that is marked on form FL-300. Then, specify if you consent (agree) or do not consent to (disagree with) the orders requested. If you disagree, describe the order you would like the court to make. Note: You may file one form FL-150 to respond to items 3, 4, and 6.

Item 9: Use the space to explain your responses to items 1–8. Include the reasons why you do not agree with the orders requested by the other party and why the court should make the orders you described. If you need more space, write your responses on a separate sheet of paper and attach it to the form (Attached Declaration (form MC-031) may be used for this purpose).

Sign and date: Print your name, sign, and write the date you signed form FL-320.

7 Next steps: file or serve your paperwork

You must file your paperwork with the court clerk at least 9 court days before the hearing. If the court orders a shorter time to file your papers, file them by the date specified in the order.

Make 2 copies of your original paperwork. Then, do one of the following before the filing deadline:

- Take your paperwork and copies to the court clerk to process (or e-file them, if available in your county). The clerk will keep the original and give you back copies with a court stamp on them. Have a stamped copy served; or
- Have an unstamped copy of your paperwork served before you take (or e-file) the originals and copies to the court clerk to file. Be sure the original documents are not served.

Server. You cannot serve the papers. Have someone else (who is at least 18 years old) do it. The “server” can be a friend, a relative who is not involved in your case, a county sheriff, or a professional process server.

Personal service.

Your papers may be served by “personal service.” Personal service means that your server walks up to each person to be served, makes sure they are the right person, and then gives a copy of all the papers to each person.

Service by mail.

“Service by mail” means that your server places copies of all the documents in a sealed envelope and mails them to the address of each party being served (or to the party’s lawyer, if applicable.) The server must be 18 years of age or over and must live or work in the county where the mailing took place.

11 Deadline for service

Personal service or service by mail on the other party must be completed at least 9 court days before the court hearing. If the court has ordered a shorter time to serve your responsive papers, be sure to have them served by the date specified in the court order.

12 Server must complete a Proof of Service

After personal service, the server should complete a form FL-330, Proof of Personal Service. Form FL-330-INFO, Information Sheet for Proof of Personal Service, has instructions to help the person complete the form.

After service by mail, the server should complete form FL-335, Proof of Service by Mail. Form FL-335-INFO, Information Sheet for Proof of Service by Mail, has instructions to help the person complete the form.

13 File the Proof of Service before your hearing date

The Proof of Service shows the judge that the person received a copy of your Responsive Declaration to Request for Order. Make three copies of the completed Proof of Service. Take the original and copies to the court clerk as soon as possible before your hearing.

The clerk will keep the original and give you back the copies stamped “Filed.” Bring a copy stamped “Filed” to your hearing. (If unstamped copies of your paperwork were served, you can file the completed Proof of Service when you file the original Responsive Declaration.)

14 Participate in child custody mediation or child custody recommending counseling

If the Request for Order includes a court order for you to attend mediation or child custody recommending counseling, the date, time, and location is found on page 1 of the Request for Order. For more information, read Child Custody Information Sheet (form FL-313-INFO or form FL-314-INFO).
